The Board Report:

With mixed emotions, the board of directors announce that club president Adam Van Zee has made the decision to step down as president effective January 3, 2019. For the past year, Adam has been actively pursuing partnership opportunities with local entities to construct a dedicated ice curling facility. These discussions continue at an advanced level and require an ever-increasing effort as they progress. Adam has found the demands of managing club business and these outside deliberations to be more than he wants to handle at this time. He will now concentrate solely on the new facility and the necessary funding for it. With the heightened awareness to our great sport created by last year's Olympics through the spectacular performance of Team USA, the time is now for us to make this happen.

As a result, the board has asked past-president Ernie Forney to return as president and finish the remainder of Adam's term. Tammy Hoffman will continue as the club vice-president. The board will determine how and when to fill the now vacant position of past president in the next several months.

This is an exciting time for the club. For the first time in CCCC history, we have a four-hour time slot each week, allowing more than 40 new members the opportunity to play this sport. The number of clinics has increased exposing even more people to curling. In addition to Butler, we now have teams from Purdue, U Indy and Carmel High playing. The board is putting the final touches on plans for the various committees we will need to successfully manage our own facility.

We all wish Adam success in his endeavors and look forward to the day we cut the ribbon to our own facility.

Good curling,
Circle City Curling Club Board of Directors

Bonspiel Spotlight: Silver Belles (Boston, MA)

Tammy, Lauren, Susan, and Rachel (and “coach” Phil) traveled to Boston, MA in early December to compete in the Silver Belles bonspiel! The theme was Hawaiian Luau, complete with tiki glasses, a hog roast, and cheesy Hawaiian shirts! The women won their first game, and lost the next two, but had a fun time playing in this beautiful club!
